1. Between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 20 March 1954, source observed that Deutsch Wagram (P 49/S 50) airfield was occupied by 21 MiG-15s. There was at 10/10 overcast, drizzle, no wind, and visibility of about 1,000 meters. No changes were observed on the temporary buildings at the field. Five tank trucks were parked in the area of the fuel dump. The western row consisted of 4 searchlights with a longer interval between the second and third searchlights. A 37-mm AA gun, covered with tarpaulins and apparently unguarded, was observed in the AA gun emplacements.

2. The following observations were made in the Deutsch Wagram military post between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 20 March: Five men wearing black-bordered blue epaulets moved in the area of the aircraft repair shop. No sentries, motor vehicles or gray crates were seen. The building No 28 on Bahnhof Strasse was guarded by sentries wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. There was little traffic by personnel. About 40 telephone lines extended into the building but no antenna systems were available. Building No 19 on Bahnhof Strasse was unguarded and no parked motor vehicles or antenna systems were seen there. Sixteen men wearing black-bordered blue epaulets entered the building, coming from the direction of Haupt Strasse. Two van-like trucks and 2 trucks, [REDACTED] were parked in the yard of building No 3 Bahnhof Strasse. Six trucks were parked in the shed of the building near the school which was guarded by sentries wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. Within 30 minutes, 17 officers ranking up to captain and wearing blue service color entered the building No 25 on Haupt Strasse. The house No 10 on Gaenserdorfer Strasse was frequented by women in civilian clothes, officers and soldiers. Women wearing civilian clothes were also seen entering and leaving buildings Nos 6 through 8 on Bockfliess Gasse. A female physician in uniform was observed in the quartering building on the southeastern edge of the installation. The buildings Nos 68 through 78 and 51 through 53 on Gaenserdorfer Strasse were guarded by sentries wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. The motor vehicle park was frequented and guarded by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. There were 8 trucks, [REDACTED] 2 van-like trucks and 9 tank trucks. The road blocks next to the house near the school were still there. No movements were observed at No 42 Bockfliess Gasse where 1 van-like truck with superstructure and 3 field kitchens were parked. Van-like truck [REDACTED] with a rod antenna and a loudspeaker on top was parked in front of No 26 Bockfliess Gasse; a cable,
